SECOND SUCCESSFUL RUN OF THE WEBINAR: NURSING, A NOBLE PROFESSION.

Second successful run of the webinar: Nursing, a noble profession.

To bolster up the ever so burdened healthcare system at the moment, Mukul Madhav Foundation kickstarted a series of webinars on the pressing topic - "Maternal and Child Health" on 7th September, 2020.

Following issues were discussed by industry leaders and changemakers:

1. Overcoming the Malnutrition Cycle:

Professor Monica Lakhanpaul, Integrated Community Child Health, Pro Vice Provost South Asia, Co-Director of CHIP (Childhood Infections and Pollution Consortium), UCL, Institute of Child Health, Faculty of Population Health Sciences, London shared the best feeding practices to curtail infection and break free of the malnutrition cycle.

2. Recognition and early management of the seriously-ill child:

Dr Arvind Shah, Consultant Paediatrician, North Middlesex University Hospital, NHS Trust, London, highlighted the crucial steps of detection and early stage management of seriously-ill child.

3. Caring for the newborn in rural areas:

Dr Anand Bang, Physician & Public Health expert, Joint Director SEARCH in Gadchiroli Dist. Maharashtra, advisor to Chief Minister of Maharashtra, touched upon topics of concern when it comes to looking after a new born in rural, remote and tribal areas.

Good news: 143 people tuned in to learn the importance of mother and child nutrition

A PARTNERSHIP WITH ANNAMITRA

In an attempt to provide relief to families that rely on daily wages, live in slums and poor housing conditions and suffer with diseases like leprosy - Mukul Madhav Foundation has continued to provide meals to make sure that no one goes to bed with an empty stomach.

SERVED WITH LOVE!

Since March 2020, we have served steaming hot khichadi to 51,800 people and a whole balanced meal to 12,000 people living with leprosy. Annamitra has also helped us provide fodder for 14,100 cows and support farmers.

CONTINUED EFFORTS FOR CHILDREN LIVING WITH CEREBRAL PALSY

Children living with Cerebral Palsy in Satara and Ratnagiri, Maharashtra continue to receive the support of online physiotherapy sessions.

Good news: 97 children benefited so far!
