

“Parents responsible along with teachers for the development of self-confidence of children” - Padmabhushan Dr. S.B. Mujumdar

“Parents are equally responsible along with teachers for the development of self-confidence of children. Discrimination of children on the basis of caste and colour is deplorable, rather we should focus on developing their self-confidence,” said the renowned educationist and Founder and Head of Symbiosis educational institutes, Padmabhushan Dr. S. B. Mujumdar.

On the 4th Annual day of Mukul Madhav Vidyalaya, in his speech Dr. S.B. Mujumdar said that in the olden days, the people were recognized according to their land-holdings and their bank balance. In the present era, a person is recognized according to the accumulation of knowledge. “Knowledge is power” and hence we should worship wisdom. He should also be literate so that they would be in a position to help their children at home in their studies. She appreciated the set up of an English medium school with all the modern facilities in this rural background of Golap- Ratnagiri. She assured that the Symbiosis Group of Institutes would be happy to provide any kind of help to Mukul Madhav Vidyalaya in future and she also gave her best wishes to Mukul Madhav Vidyalaya for their future endeavours. The anchor of the programme Mr. Navin Bijlani mentioned that computer literacy is being imparted to the students right from the Junior K.G. level in Mukul Madhav Vidyalaya and women are also being imparted the same as a step towards women empowerment programme.
