

Helmet awareness drive

AS PART of a helmet-awareness drive, the Pune city police has organised a motorcycle rally on January 15, in which about 1,000 riders, including police and civilians wearing helmets, would be participating. Pune Police Commissioner Rashmi Shukla said that those citizens who want to participate can join the rally. The rally will begin from the Shivajinagar police headquarters around 7 am and conclude at the same spot after visiting several places across the city.
