

Cricket unites: Disability no barrier in T20 Series

India-Eng disabled teams to clash in historic T20 matches

By [Name]

[Address]

The idea to set up India and England's first-ever disabled T20 cricket series has taken root. The series, which will be a one-day event, will be held in London at the end of the month. The series will be a one-day event, which will be held in London at the end of the month.

The series will be a one-day event, which will be held in London at the end of the month. The series will be a one-day event, which will be held in London at the end of the month.

The series will be a one-day event, which will be held in London at the end of the month. The series will be a one-day event, which will be held in London at the end of the month.

The series will be a one-day event, which will be held in London at the end of the month. The series will be a one-day event, which will be held in London at the end of the month.

Official [Name] of the series

The series will be a one-day event, which will be held in London at the end of the month. The series will be a one-day event, which will be held in London at the end of the month.

The series will be a one-day event, which will be held in London at the end of the month. The series will be a one-day event, which will be held in London at the end of the month.

The series will be a one-day event, which will be held in London at the end of the month. The series will be a one-day event, which will be held in London at the end of the month.

The series will be a one-day event, which will be held in London at the end of the month. The series will be a one-day event, which will be held in London at the end of the month.

The series will be a one-day event, which will be held in London at the end of the month. The series will be a one-day event, which will be held in London at the end of the month.